Electricity: The electrical current in China is 220 volts, 50 cycles alternating current (AC).

Currency: The monetary unit is the RMB, which comes in bank notes of 1, 5, 10, 20, 50, and 100. In China, traveler checks are rarely accepted. ATMs can be found in even the smallest Chinese towns. Most international credit cards or bank cards are accepted (a strip of logos is usually displayed above the ATM). ATMs have a language key to enable you to read the instructions in English.

Working Hours: Banks are open weekdays from 9 AM until noon and from 1:30 PM to 5 PM in the afternoon. Museums are generally open from 9 AM to 5 PM. The majority of tourist attractions are open during the same time every day.
Host City Hangzhou

Hangzhou is a modern city in a classic Chinese setting. The city hums with activities and an endless flow of traffic, while the beautiful West Lake lies peacefully at the heart of all commotion, soothing the senses.

In eastern China, Hangzhou is the capital of Zhejiang Province and one of the seven capitals of ancient China. The city is also the southern end of the Beijing-Hangzhou Grand Canal, the longest canal ever built in the world. Find out more about the city’s history which dates back 5,000 years, or immerse yourself in the cultural heritage by sitting back and relaxing with a cup of exquisite West Lake Longjing Tea.

Pubs in Hangzhou are vibrant and packed with an international community gathering to chill out, while the tea houses are tranquil with a pleasant environment that allows one to sit back and savor various kinds of coffee and tea.

Shopping in Hangzhou

Since ancient times, Hangzhou has been reputed for its production of silk and tea. Here, visitors can find Longjing tea or Dragonwell tea, which is considered one of the best in China, exquisite silk brocades, as well as unique handicrafts and art pieces. Shopping in Hangzhou ranges from a traditional to a modern experience and there are several major shopping areas spread all over the city.

Shops are open, in general, from 9am to 8pm Monday to Saturday; Big shopping malls open from 10am to 10pm seven days a week. Shops do not close for lunch.
